Period for Reply -- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 05 December 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3 and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,548,601 to Lary.

Lary shows a medication dispenser as seen in Figs. 2 and 4, having a puncturable and compressible generally rectangular ampule 12 containing a pre-selected amount of medication P, the ampule is open by applying a designated quantity of pressure, as pressure is applied the container is open by a calibrated puncturing device 17, see Fig. 7, expelling material or air is trapped between the container and an outer container 11, some air and medication is forced out of the dispenser when pressure is applied to the sides of the dispenser walls, see Fig. 6, column 3, lines 11-13 and lines 19-21. The outer container 11 and 25 maintain the ampule sealed from the environment.

In reference to the dispenser used for oral medication, it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

3. Claims 9, 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4,059,109 to Tischlinger.

Tischlinger shows a close, squeezable and puncturable ampule of generally rectangular shape having a first chamber 22 configured to hold a medication B stored as a powdered form, a second chamber 20 configured to store a reconstituting liquid and spelling material A, the first and second chambers are separated by a breakable membrane 96, a calibrated puncturing device 116 to produce a dispensing hole in the ampule, the puncturing device is a portion of the ampule and is maintained in a sealed environment.

In reference to the dispenser used for oral medication, it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 4,059,109 to Tischlinger in view of US 5,286,257 to Fischer.

Fischer shows all claimed features as discussed above except for the expelling material being air. Fischer shows an ampule using air together with the expelling material. It would have been obvious to a person with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use air in the expelling material of Tischlinger to promote mixing of the reconstituting material and the spelling material as taught by Fischer.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3, 6-9, 11 and 14-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
